Revised Employers Guide to the CIJC Working Rule Agreement 2014

Construction Industry Publications Ltd (CIP) has published a second edition of the popular guide to the CIJC Working Rule Agreement. The guidance, written by the Construction Industry Joint Council (CIJC) is for those employers who chose to incorporate the provisions of the CIJC Working Rule Agreement into the contracts of employment of their operatives. It is intended to help answer many of the questions frequently asked by employers about the interpretation of the various clauses and best practice.

This booklet does not form part of the agreement itself and although there should be no conflict between advice in this booklet and the agreement, it is the provisions of the Collective Agreement itself that must take precedence.

Copies of the guide can be purchased from CIP for £9.95 + p&p via the website www.cip-books.com, or via the sales hot line 0870 078 4400.
